

Your Session Guide

This guide walks you through what a boudoir shoot is and how the process works here at JHP Boudoir. I am excited to get you in the studio.

If you have any questions after reading it, please reach out and I will get back to you as soon as I can. My studio hours are Monday to Thursday, 10am–3pm, and consultation calls run Monday to Friday, 8am–5pm.

This guide is very thorough — which means it is long. Sit down, grab a glass of your favourite whatever, and read it to the very end.

A Bit About Me

I am Jess. Wife to Zach, and I love the local weatherman with all my heart. Gin, tonic, lime.

Seven years of college and three degrees later, I ended up running my own business full time. I would not trade the journey.

I love changing lives through my art. Thank you for being here and for supporting my business — I cannot wait to meet you and make some of the most gorgeous photographs of yourself you will ever have.

Where the Studio Is

The studio is just outside Jefferson City, Missouri. There is over 2,000 square feet of it: multiple set-ups, a hair and makeup room, a wardrobe room, and a sales area full of samples.

It is full of gorgeous natural light, vintage exposed brick, wood beams and glass chandeliers. It is a comforting space, and it was built for boudoir photography.

The studio, on an ordinary afternoon.

So, What Is Boudoir?

The French word boudoir means a woman's dressing room or bedroom, but I like to think of it as a fancy word for women's intimate portraiture. I want to make the most beautiful portraits of you that you will ever have.

Boudoir is not pornographic or overly sexual. It can be fun, flirty, beautiful, cute, sexy, feminine, intimate, candid, posed — or really anything else you want it to be.

If you have not already joined my private VIP group on Facebook, I highly suggest you do: the JHP Boudoir VIP group.

What Would I Do With Boudoir Portraits?

I believe boudoir is the best gift you can give yourself — to capture your essence as you are right now. When you need a reminder of the strong, beautiful woman that you are, you will have a collection of amazing portraits to look at.

I love it when women come to me for themselves. The images we make together will boost your self esteem and your confidence, and that should be celebrated by you. It will help you reclaim your femininity and your sexuality, two things that are often lost as we get consumed with our lives, our jobs, our families.

Put that pep back in your step and reflect on the bodacious babe you are. Celebrate the body that you live in.

Can You Make Me Look Thinner?

I want to help you feel beautiful now, just the way you are. I flatter you with hair and makeup styling, a wardrobe that compliments your figure, and amazing lighting and posing techniques to highlight your best assets. See what I did there.

I do not believe in heavy photoshopping. Do not get me wrong — I retouch all of your images and will gladly remove your bruises and pimples — but I do not want to over-manipulate your body to make you look like someone you are not. We already live in a time when we are consumed with unrealistic bodies in the media. I want to show you that you are beautiful at this very moment, without over the top retouching.

I Don't Look Like the Women in Your Portfolio

Actually, you do. You just have not had the chance to see yourself from my perspective yet. Come into the studio and let me show you how beautiful you really are.

There is no such thing as the perfect body. Boudoir is for every body. You are never too big, too small, too old or too young to do a boudoir session — though I only photograph clients over the age of 18.

Who Is Going to Be There?

You and me. Your hair and makeup artist leaves once the service is finished.

I have a full female staff, and the studio is designed with private rooms for each portion of your day.

What About Retouching?

I am happy to retouch your images. I always remove pimples, bruises, scratches and under eye circles. I also offer retouching on cellulite, scars, small tattoos and stretch marks, if you choose to have them removed.

Honestly, most of my clients are wowed at how amazing their images look straight out of camera and opt for less retouching than they thought they needed. It is a very personal decision and one I leave up to you once you have seen your images.

I do not remove tan lines or correct skin tone from tanning beds or spray tans, so proceed with caution. I do have editing techniques to keep you from looking pasty, if that is a concern.

Posed from head to pointed toe — you will not have to work it out.

What Will I Wear?

I have a beautiful and comprehensive wardrobe guide that gives you the full picture on how to look and feel like a bombshell for your session. My policy is always: when in doubt, bring it.

You are welcome to make a Pinterest board and share it with me so I can help make your dream shoot a reality. And there is a client wardrobe of over 160 pieces, sizes XS to 4X, that you are more than welcome to borrow from and browse through.

Do I Get to Talk to You First?

Most of my clients book their session over the phone, which is kind of like our first date. We will have one 20 minute phone consultation, so we can make sure you are ready and answer any questions you have.

I am here for you every step of the way. Email is how I communicate most effectively with clients, so write to me any time at jessica@jhpoudoir.com. Emails are typically returned within two to three business days.

Please, no props, no spray tans, and absolutely no weapons in the studio at any time.

I also do not allow anyone under the age of 18 in the boudoir studio, ever.

What Types of Sessions Do You Offer?

Yes, there are different types of boudoir session you can book, and I am always changing it up. Right now I am offering these:

YEAR ROUND · MOST POPULAR

Traditional Studio Sessions

In the studio, all year. Great for a first timer.

SUMMER DATES ONLY

Outdoor Boudoir Sessions

Exclusive locations, on summer dates only.

Have something else in mind? Ask me. I am always up for a new adventure.

Every body. Every age. Every size.

How the Session Day Works

Your session day runs two to three hours from start to finish. You get complimentary hair and makeup, access to the 160-piece client wardrobe, and I pose you from head to pointed toe and help you with a whole range of facial expressions.

Be prepared to be sore afterwards. We do a lot of bending and twisting — it is quite the workout.

1 HAIR AND MAKEUP

Professional hair and makeup first, so you arrive in front of the camera already finished. Your artist leaves once it is done.

2WARDROBE

We go through what you brought and what you want to borrow, and pick the order we will shoot it in.

3YOUR SESSION

The studio is private and it is just the two of us. I direct everything — you do not need to know how to pose, and you will not be left standing there wondering what to do with your hands.

4AND THAT IS THE DAY

Sessions run inside studio hours, Monday to Thursday, 10am–3pm. Your reveal is a separate appointment, so you go home when we are done rather than making decisions about pictures you have not seen yet.

Your Image Reveal

Your reveal is 7–14 business days after your session. It is a private appointment over Zoom, and it is where you see your images for the very first time — together, with me, going through them one by one.

You will be shown 50 to 100 images. You choose which ones you want to keep and how you want them, and you order them at that same appointment.

You are not sent a link and left to work it out alone. That is the part most women tell me afterwards was their favourite of the whole thing.

When the Albums and Prints Arrive

Your digital images are yours the moment the reveal ends. Albums, wall art and anything else printed are made to order and arrive at your door within 6 weeks of that appointment. I usually drop ship everything directly to you to keep the process as simple as possible.

Your images, seen together for the first time at your reveal.

What Do I Need to Do to Book?

The session fee reserves your date on my calendar. Your images are purchased separately from it, at your reveal and ordering appointment, and the full investment menu comes to you once the session fee is paid.

SESSION FEE

$697 to reserve your date

It can be paid in full, or split into two payments — the first to reserve the date on the calendar, the second within 14 days of it. If the second payment is not made within those 14 days, the date and the first payment are forfeited.

What the session fee includes:

- ◆ Your 20 minute pre-session consultation
- ◆ Private use of the boudoir studio
- ◆ Professional hair and makeup application
- ◆ Access to the 160-piece client wardrobe
- ◆ 60 minutes of photography
- ◆ Complete posing and expression coaching
- ◆ Your private reveal and ordering appointment over Zoom

Can Someone Come With Me?

No — I do not allow guests for any portion of the time you spend with us, including the ordering appointment. What I do is delivered best one to one, with your complete undivided attention.

I Need My Images By a Certain Date

The studio books up to 15 months in advance, and printed products take up to six weeks after your reveal. So reach out well before the date you need them.

If you have a special occasion coming up, or you want a holiday appointment, I recommend booking a year ahead of that date. Those dates go first.

What Can I Expect to Spend?

Before I have photographed you it is hard to give you an exact figure. Some women want a basic album; others invest several thousand in a Collection with a variety of products. What you spend is up to you. You can buy from my Collections or a la carte, and the full investment menu comes to you as soon as your booking is complete.

That said — if you are looking for a quick shoot, or just a few images, this is not the session for you. I offer a full experience and I show you 50 to 100 images. I only offer luxury products, because you are worth it. Investing in yourself is priceless. You will never tire of your images, or forget the way the session day made you feel.

The Collections

There are eight Collections in all, so there is room to find the one that fits.

PETITE COLLECTIONS

from $1,250

Three digital images.

FULL COLLECTIONS

from $3,400

An album, your digitals and a mobile app.

Sticker shock? I get it. I had it too, the first time I booked a professional boudoir session with my own dream photographer. And you know what — I would have paid her double by the time it was done.

I know this is an investment, which is why every Collection is chosen when you book and paid for on an interest-free in-house payment plan before your session. Weekly, biweekly or monthly — whichever suits you, spread over the months between booking and your session day. It is the same figure either way, and we set it up on auto-pay so you never have to think about a late fee.

This is the part I cannot wait for.

Ready to Book?

If you have made it this far and you are ready to take the next step, book your consultation call below. If you would rather ask something first, reply to the email this guide came with and tell me you would like to chat before taking the leap.

I truly hope you have enjoyed reading this, and that it has left you excited about the thought of having your own session. Ask me anything at all — I want you to be completely comfortable, and completely empowered, during your session.

I cannot wait to chat with you soon.
